

Double Hammock

Carolina citrus CAH16-5

Double hammock Carolina citrus is from Colombia, where hammocks have always been an essential part of everyday life. Traditional Colombian hammock art such as hand-plaited warp threads between the end of the fabric and the suspension satisfies even highest demands on aesthetics and comfort. The jacquard design creates a very interesting surface structure with gorgeous colour effects. The open-loop-suspension is also a typical characteristic of hammocks manufactured in Colombia. Carolina citrus is made of pure, high-quality cotton. This hammock features a tearproof selvage created by doubling the weft threads, thus making sure that you will be able to enjoy your peaceful LA SIESTA oasis for many years to come. The fabric of our Carolina line is densely woven and the many suspension cords ensure an even distribution of weight.

Pure Cotton

Pure cotton is a material that is very soft to the touch, comfortable, tearproof and durable. Its long fibres give colours room to shine.

Open-loop-suspension

A typical characteristic of all hammocks manufactured in Colombia is the open-loop-suspension.

Traditional Colombian plaits

Colombian hammocks are real pieces of art. Not only does the beauty of the usually handmade plaits between the end of the fabric and the suspension please the eye, they also make the hammock extremely comfortable.

Tearproof selvage

The two borders of the lying surface feature a particularly tight weave. Thanks to this robust surface, exceptional stability is guaranteed.

High number of suspension cords

Additional comfort thanks to a multitude of suspension cords that distribute the weight equally to the cloth of the hammock and hence give a unique feeling of agravity.
