

Baltic Fire Column

Define your outdoor space with the clean design of a Real Flame Baltic Fire Column. Cast from a high performance, lightweight fiber-concrete that is tinted to the finish color for increased outdoor durability. This fire column comes complete with lava rock filler, and a matching lid for when the burner is not in use. Also features a cleverly hidden, removable door to access the internally stored fuel tank. The Baltic Collection carries a CSA Certification and features an electronic ignition. Collection available in Glacier Gray or Kodiak Brown finishes. Concrete material color will be accurate but actual finish may vary from photo.
