Thank you for choosing the Barrette Outdoor Living Fence Gate. Please read the instructions completely before assembling your gate. Retain manual and your dated sales slip for future reference and warranty claims.

Before You Begin...

Check your local zoning laws.

- Local zoning laws and Home Owners Associations may regulate the location, style and height of your fence or even require a permit signoff beforehand.

Contact your local utilities companies.

- You must have the utility companies clearly mark your property for electrical, gas or water lines to avoid puncturing any unseen underground utilities.

Pay to mark your property line.

- Being proactive will save you time and money from any disputes from neighbors.

Gate posts require an internal support system for weight-bearing purposes and therefore wooden inserts or a post stiffener is required.

Post Spacing will be determined by gate width and hardware.

Product Overview:

NOTE: For plain flat rails use an internal post top. For decorative rails use a rail plug.

- 1.) Assemble the center portion by inseting the vertical boards into the bottom of the horizontal rail. For decorative top rail gates, there are two 4-1/2 in. boards (One missing a tongue and one missing a groove) which should be placed on the outer edges of the gate. Add left and right U-channels on either side. Snap the top rail horizontal rail on the vertical uprights.
- 2.) Install the center portion into the gate uprights. Snip off excess material on the upright for decorative rail installation (Figure 1). For flat rails the space should be at the top of the upright.
- 3.) Next, adhere the internal post top or decorative rail plug with glue. (Figure 2)
- 4.) Make sure the gate is square (Figure 3) and mark screw position in each of four corners. Make sure the screw placement allows for connection of the rail to the upright. (Figure 4)
- 5.) Secure the rails to the uprights using #2 square drive bit with supplied screws (20) for the flat rails or #10 x 3/4 in. screws (40) for the decorative rail. Repeat in each of the four corners on the front side of the gate and for the decorative rail on the opposite side of the gate (eight corners).
- 6.) Mount the gate according to the instructions on the hinge.
