For discontinued models, the manufacturer reserves the right to substitute an item of its choice that is of similar style and quality. For warranty replacements based on warranty claims submitted within the first year of purchase, the manufacturer will pay all shipping and handling charges within continental North America. After the first year, shipping and handling charges are the responsibility of the claimant. Neither the manufacturer nor the dealer shall be responsible for charges associated with shipments outside continental North America at any time for any reason.

Exclusions: This warranty coverage excludes the following: any items used for commercial, contract or other non-residential purposes; clearance items, display models or items purchased “as is;” freight damage; items subject to misuse, abuse or lack of proper care and maintenance; normal wear and tear; damage caused by acts of nature, force majeure, vandalism, fire or other casualty; damage caused by improper assembly; hardware against corrosion or rusting; plastic parts.

In no event shall the manufacturer’s responsibility exceed the cost of the purchase price of the item found to be other than as warranted.

This warranty is the exclusive statement of your rights with respect to the defects in the items you have purchased and supersedes any other express warranty or statement, written or oral, made in connection with the purchase and sale of such item. When used herein, the term “item” when used in the singular refers to the specific item found to be defective and not the entire set of which it is a part. Some states do not allow exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the exclusions and limitations above may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other rights that vary from state to state.
