

LIMITED WARRANTY

Product: Mulia Tiles

Mulia Incorporated guarantees its tile products to be free from manufacturing defects for a period of 1 year after the date of purchase. The warranty shall not include installation, workmanship, accessory materials, or conditions of applications. The buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Mulia Incorporated shall be for the replacement, excluding installation, of defective products, delivered to the original place of purchase. In no event shall Mulia Incorporated be liable for any damages arising because of product failure, whether incidental, special, consequential or punitive, regardless of the theory of liability upon which any such damages are claimed. This warranty supersedes all prior warranties and representations for Mulia Incorporated's tile products.

Variations in shade, pattern and size are natural features of ceramic / porcelain tiles and are not considered as manufacturing defect. Final color selection should be made from actual tile samples.

During the process of installation, care should be exercised to ensure proper mixing of tiles from different boxes in order to make the tile appearance uniform. No claim after the installation of the product will be honored.

