

Big Shiny Balls was born in Miami for the love of art, fun, and all things round. Our founder has been an artist for much of his life and we keep that artistic flair at the heart of all of our products. As a family run small business, we enjoy creating memorable experiences for our community. Our studio is located in the famous Miami Art District and we work with a trusted team to ensure that all of our products are always crafted with high quality. So, go ahead, have a ball.

At Big Shiny Balls, we design bold, imaginative products that bring people together in unforgettable ways. Our mission is to create larger-than-life experiences that spark joy, ignite connections, and celebrate moments of shared excitement. Through innovative craftsmanship and a commitment to memorable interactions, we're dedicated to making every event BIGGER, shinier, and uniquely captivating.
