WIND FLOWERS ANEMONES MERON BORDEAUX

Anemones are wonderful small bulbs and are often underestimated like a little treasure. They are a great ground cover and a good choice for woodland and rock gardens. The foliage is low-clumping, but the blooms are very colorful.

Also know as Wind Flowers

Good color accent choice

Large, open faced flowers

About This Variety: Commonly only sold in mixtures, this maroon - almost blackish - variety is unique and one of the darkest anemones available.

Growing Instructions: Inexpensive and easy to grow, they are the perfect companion for late daffodils and later blooming tulips. For best effect plant in mass sweeps with a heavy hand, planting about 16 per square foot. Purchase several packs to produce that colorful curb appeal effect.

Care Tip: Soak the corms in luke warm water overnight before planting to jump start development. Plant after danger of frost.

Exposure: Full sun to partial shade

Height: Grows 12-18"

Spacing: Plant 3-6" apart, 2-3" deep

Hardy in: USDA zones 7-10

Guaranteed to grow 1 year from purchase if directions are followed. Any concerns related to quality and/or counts feel free to contact us.
