WIND FLOWERS ANEMONES DARKEST BLUE

Anemones are wonderful small bulbs and are often underestimated like a little treasure. They are a great ground cover and a good choice for woodland and rock gardens. The foliage is low-clumping, but the blooms are very colorful.

Full sun to partial shade

Also known as Wind Flowers

Unique blue color

About This Variety: Anemones are widely available at retail nurseries and mail-order catalogs in mixed colors. Anemones in single colors, however, are unique and caught our eye, as they make for striking color displays in the garden. We have identified this color to be special.

Growing Instructions: Inexpensive and easy to grow they are the perfect companion for late daffodils and later blooming tulips. For best effect plant in mass sweeps with a heavy hand planting about 16 per square foot. Purchase several packs to produce that colorful curb appeal effect.

Care Tip: Soak the corms in luke warm water overnight before planting to jump start development. Plant after danger of frost.

Exposure: Full sun to partial shade

Height: Grows 12-18"

Spacing: Plant 3-6" apart, 2-3" deep

Hardy in: USDA zones 7-10

Guaranteed to grow 1 year from purchase if directions are followed. Any concerns related to quality and/or counts feel free to contact us.
