

48.8 in / 1240 mm

The image shows a black, cylindrical object, possibly a container or a component, suspended by a metal frame. The frame consists of a vertical rod at the top, which branches into two diagonal supports that meet at a horizontal bar. The cylindrical object is attached to this horizontal bar. The object has a textured surface and a small circular feature on its side. The dimensions are indicated by arrows and text: a vertical arrow on the left shows a height of 48.8 in / 1240 mm; a diagonal arrow at the bottom left shows a length of 39.4 in / 1000 mm; and a horizontal arrow at the bottom right shows a width of 17.5 in / 445 mm.
