Guide to receive your tax credit

Background:

On October 3, 2008, President George W. Bush signed, into law, the Emergency Stabilization Act followed by President Barack Obama signing into law the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) on February 17, 2009.

The combined effect of these two laws provides up to a 30% federal tax credit on both the purchase and installation of qualifying products in renewable technologies such as: solar electric property, residential solar water heating, qualified small wind energy and qualified geothermal heat pump energy, as well as others.

Under these laws VELUX Solar Powered Fresh Air Skylights, VELUX Energy Performance Model Skylights, VELUX residential rigid Sun Tunnels with the solar night light, as well as VELUX Solar Powered Blinds qualify under "Solar Electric Property" expenditures when purchased and installed from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2021.
