

You're going to live, laugh and love life in your outdoor space with the Atlas 7-piece outdoor dining set from Mōd. Share farm-to-table meals your whole brood of friends, neighbors and kiddos alike with this modern farmhouse dining set that includes six padded contoured-sling swivel rockers and a 74-inch by 40-inch slat-top trestle table. (Drinking from a mason jar is optional.) This set can weather life's many storms, both metaphorically and quite literally. It's crafted with durable, all-weather materials, including heavy-duty steel frames, finished with a high-performance powder coating for extended protection against rust, scratches and your previously mentioned brood. The Atlas collection's chairs are both comfy and convenient—the swivel rockers allow a 360-degree spin and gentle rocking motion and support you with contoured PVC sling that is padded for max comfort. This dining set will be well-used and well-loved for years to come.
