

Proposition 65 Compliance Statement

This product does not require a California Proposition 65 warning label. Based on a review of the formulation and intended use, the product does not contain any chemicals listed by the State of California under Proposition 65 at levels that would require a warning, nor does it result in exposures above the established safe harbor levels. Therefore, no Proposition 65 labeling is required.