WHAT STANLEY POWER EQUIPMENT WILL REPAIR OR REPLACE UNDER WARRANTY:

STANLEY will repair or replace, at its option, any part that is proven to be defective in material or workmanship under normal use during the applicable warranty time period subject to the exclusions stated herein. This warranty is void if the owner fails to follow the prescribed maintenance and operating procedures described in this manual. This specifically refers to ensuring routine oil changes are made, that fuel stabilizer is used for long-term storage, that the generator is not overloaded, and that the generator loads are distributed evenly between the A and B outlets. Dirty carburetors, spark plugs, air filters, fuel filters, and freight or handling damage are not covered under warranty.

STANLEY has the right to recover warranty administration costs from the owner if the root cause of the malfunction was found to be other than defective material or workmanship. In particular, this warranty does not cover: contaminants in the fuel or oil; damage caused by not following the prescribed warnings and operating practices; failure to follow proper maintenance and storage procedures; and physical damage due to shipping or handling or storage. Damage to the generator that occurs as a result of connecting a STANLEY generator to household wiring without the use of a UL approved transfer switch device that is connected to the home or business and grounded as per applicable local electrical codes, is not covered by this warranty.

Warranty repairs will be made without charge for parts and labor for the first year. After the first year, this limited warranty covers the costs of replacement parts only.

EMISSION CONTROL SYSTEM INFORMATION

The U.S. and California Clean Air Acts

EPA and California regulations require all manufacturers to furnish written instructions describing the operation and maintenance of emission control systems. The following instructions and procedures must be followed in order to keep the emissions from your STANLEY engine within the emission standards. Maintenance, replacement, or repair of the emission control devices and systems may be performed by any engine repair establishment or individual, using parts that are "certified" to EPA standards.

The emission control systems on your STANLEY engine were designed, built, and certified to conform with EPA regulations. We recommend the use of genuine STANLEY parts whenever you have maintenance done. These original-design replacement parts are manufactured to the same standards as the original parts, so you can be confident of their performance. The use of replacement parts that are not of the original design and quality may impair the effectiveness of your emission control system. A manufacturer of an aftermarket part assumes the responsibility that the part will not adversely affect emission performance. The manufacturer or re-builder of the part must certify that use of the part will not result in a failure of the engine to comply with emission regulations.

Emission controls are covered by this warranty for all uses for a period of 2 years from original retail purchase date, this coverage extends to subsequent owners of the product with proof of original purchase. For emissions warranty service call 1-800-393-0668 or e-mail customerservice@gxioutdoorpower.com.
